

Media Contact:
Jesse Gerstein
at Baltz & Company – 212.982.8300

CHEF TIM LOVE
OF
LONESOME DOVE WESTERN BISTRO IS SCOOPED UP BY
SPOONS ACROSS AMERICA
TO SERVE ON THEIR NATIONAL ADVISORY BOARD

For Immediate Release

On November 23, 2004
In Fort Worth, Texas

Chef Tim Love, chef/owner of the award-winning Lonesome Dove Western Bistro, receiving a phone call from the New York office of Spoons Across America, has been asked to serve on their national advisory board. He has accepted this honored invitation. Chef Love will be in good company; other food authorities serving on this advisory board include Food Arts founding editor Michael Batterberry, The French Culinary Institute's founder Dorothy Cann Hamilton, Barbara Haber of Harvard University and renowned chef/author Jacques Pepin.

6 Chefs, 6 Horses, 5 States, 342 Ingredients in 6 Days!
This honor comes about after Chef Love's latest endeavor to raise awareness for Spoons Across America. This October 2004, in the name of children's culinary education, Chef Tim Love and his entire staff traveled nearly 4,900 miles across the west by horse and bus. Stopping in Santa Fe, Scottsdale, Las Vegas and Los Angeles, the freshest, local ingredients were shopped for at farmer's markets and fundraising dinners prepared with highly-acclaimed chefs including Mark Miller and Robert McGrath. Thousands of dollars were raised by Chef Love for Spoons Across America during his trail drive to California. The media attention garnered by these events for Spoons Across America priceless.

More...

Page 2. Chef Tim Love Scooped by Spoons Across America

Shelley Menaged of The James Beard Foundation and Spoons Across America, " Tim is a tireless promoter of kids' culinary education. His devotion to this cause is unyielding. Spoons Across America is lucky to have him. Chef Love brought Spoons to Texas and now we're asking him to help us bring Spoons to every corner of the country."

Lonesome Dove Western Bistro, located in Fort Worth's Historic Stockyards, has won numerous awards for Chef Love's unforgettable Urban Western Cuisine. Since its inception in 2000, the restaurant has been listed among 'Top Tables Around the World' by John Mariani and has received the highest rating of any Dallas/Fort Worth restaurant by Zagat 2004 and 2005, giving Lonesome Dove the distinction of 'America's Top Restaurants.' Chef Love has been featured in much national media including The Today Show, The New York Times, Bon Appetit, The Wall Street Journal and Southern Living among others. For more information about Lonesome Dove Western Bistro or Chef Tim Love, please visit www.lonesomedovebistro.com.

Spoons Across America is the source for children's culinary education, providing information and programs about food and nutrition for schools, families, and community organizations. Spoons Across America is supported by the James Beard Foundation. Spoons Across America, a not-for-profit organization, was founded on the premise that it is essential to the health of children and our society to bring the joys of the table to the children of America. The table is where children learn about conversation, consideration, tolerance and other tools needed for getting along in society. For more information on Spoons Across America, please visit www.spoonsacrossamerica.org.